

Recruiting an out-of-town or out-of-state employee shouldn't be daunting.

After you've found the right person for your job opening, you want to do everything you can to ensure they accept your offer, even if they're not local. Understanding your candidate's potential hurdles is the first step.

Did you know that nearly 60%* of all job relocations are impacted by a spouse or partner's employment opportunities in the new location? In other words, whether or not your candidate's partner will have a job after the move can determine if your candidate accepts an offer. That's where we can help.

"Hire Me. Connect My Partner." is a concierge service for the spouse or partner of your candidate. Allow us to assist your candidate's partner and connect them with potential employment opportunities.

Let your candidate know that what's important to them is also important to you.

Concierge services include:

- Individualized and customized employment services
- Access to a vast network of local employers
- Ability to meet at your location; we will come to you!
- Dedicated phone and email line to ensure prompt service
